

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C.,

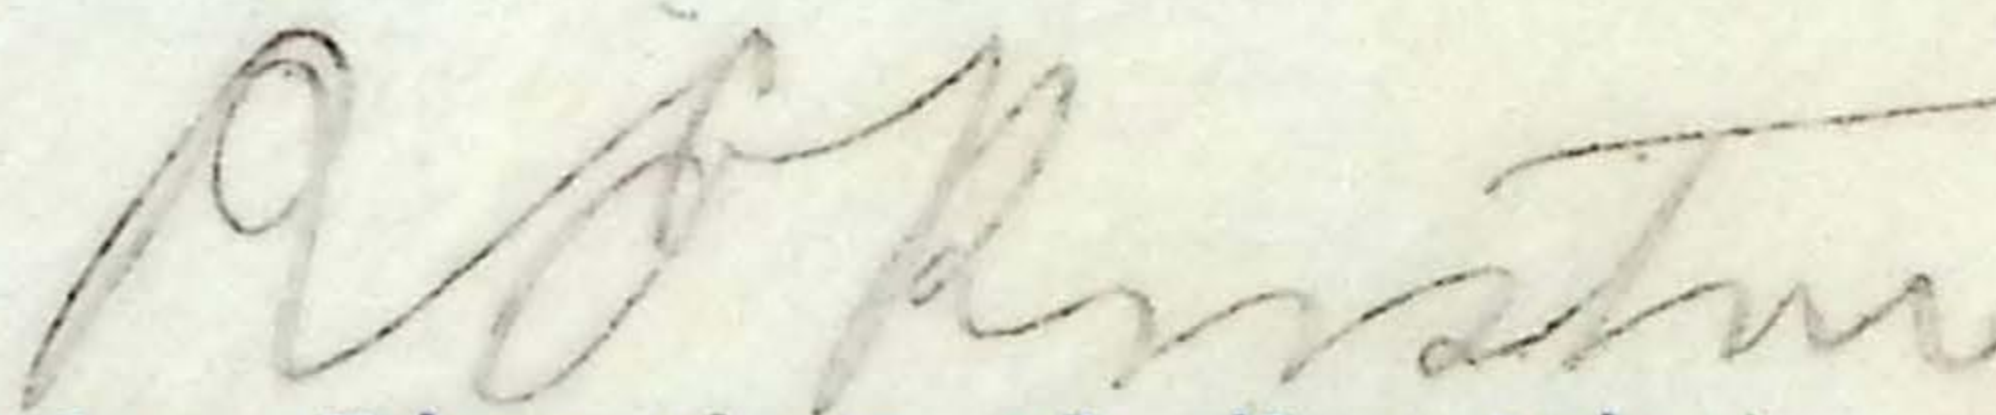

June 27, 1899.

Shields, Esq.,

Muncie, Indiana.

Replying to your letter of the 23rd instant, I would state that it be some months before the Lafayette souvenir coins are ready for distribution. Their sale will be under the direction of the Lafayette
National Commission. To obtain you should address R. J. Thompson
Secretary, Auditorium Building, Chicago, Illinois.

Respectfully yours,

Acting Director of the Mint.

S

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., June 27, 1899

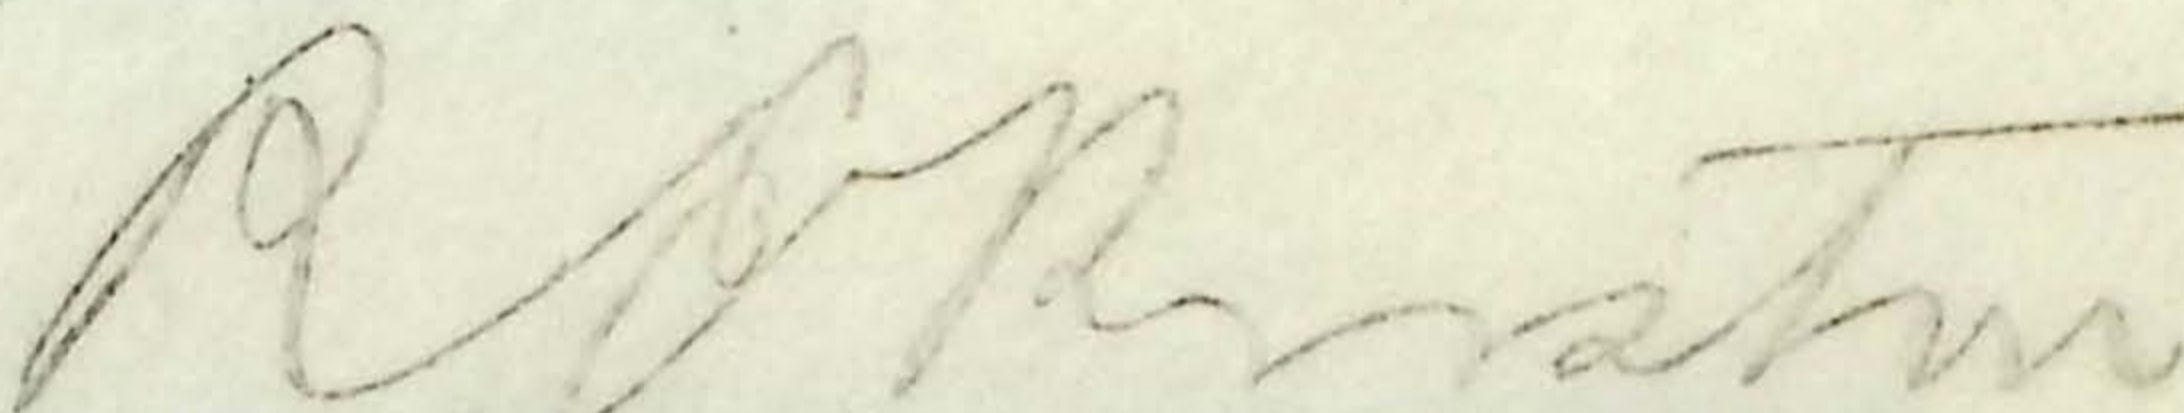

Geo. Turner,

United States Senate,

(Spokane, Washington).

Replying to your letter of the 22nd instant, I would state that it
be some months before the Lafayette souvenir coins are ready for distribution. Their sale will be under the direction of the Lafayette Commission. To obtain one you should address R. J. Thompson
Secretary, Auditorium Building, Chicago, Illinois.

Respectfully yours,

Acting Director of the Mint.

S

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., July 17, 1899.

Mr. J. T. McCleary,

Mankato, Minn.

Your letter of the 12th instant, relative to the Lafayette souve-r dollar is at hand. The distribution of these coins will be the hands of the Lafayette Memorial Commission, of which Mr. R. J.
Thompson, Auditorium Building, Chicago, Illinois, is the Secretary.
Applications for these coins should be made to him. They will not be ready for distribution for some months.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.

S

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., July 17, 1899

Esq.,

to, Wisconsin.

Replying to your letter of the 16th ultimo, addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, and referred to this Bureau for reply
I state that it will be some months before the Lafayette coins are ready for distribution. Their sale will be under the direction of the Lafayette Memorial Commission. To obtain them you should address R. J. Thompson, Secretary, Auditorium
Building, Chicago, Illinois.

Respectfully yours,

Grover C. Roberts

Director of the Mint.

E

Treasury Department,Bureau of the Mint,*Washington, D. C.,*July 25, 1899*Jno. F. Fisher, P.M.*Paducah, Kentucky.*Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 21st instant, addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, and referred to this Bureau for reply, I would state that it will be some months before the Lafayette souvenir coins are ready for distribution. Their sale will be under the direction of the Lafayette Memorial Commission. To obtain one you should address R. J. Thompson, Secretary, Auditorium Building, Chicago, Illinois.

Respectfully yours,Director of the Mint.*S

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., July 28, 1893

Mr. Flexner, Esq.,

Charleston, Ills.

Your letter addressed to Mr. F. A. Vanderlip, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in relation to the Lafayette dollar has been referred to this office.

This coin will not be ready for distribution for some months and when ready will be disposed of by the Lafayette Memorial Commission, of which R. J. Thompson, Auditorium Building, Chicago, Ills., is Secretary. Applications for the coins should be addressed to him.

The Dewey dollar of which you speak ~~is not~~ has not been authorized by Congress.

Respectfully yours,

Geo E. Robert
Director of the Mint.